EXPLANATION OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN
SAN DIEGO UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT
AND
HEINEMANN, CONSULTANT
April 13, 2004

PARTIES TO THE AGREEMENT: San Diego Unified School District and Heinemann

AGREEMENT SUMMARY: Consultant will provide the service of Dr. Donald Graves to address the principals of Adams, Brooklyn, Burbank, Central, Chollas/Mead, Euclid, Hamilton, Horton, Johnson, Kennedy, Knox, Linda Vista, Logan, North Park, Perkins, Valencia Park, Webster as well as work with the staff at Central elementary on conducting effective writing conferences.

TERM: May 5, 2004

AMOUNT OF FUNDING: $3,500.00

SOURCE OF FUNDING: 0059 7258 2005 10727 00 11100 1000 0000.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION: Dr. Donald Graves is a noted author with Heinemann. He began his teaching career in 1956 teaching 7th grade English. Two years later he was appointed principal. In 1965 he helped the Hamburg New York school system create a new reading program under Title I. Two years later he became the Director of Reading, Special Programs and ESL in Lackawanna New York. In 1973 he completed his Doctoral Dissertation on Writing which later won the Promising Researcher Award for the national Council of Teacher’s of English in 1974. Dr. Graves has written numerous books, which include, Writing: Teachers and Children at Work, A Researcher Learns to Write, Breaking Ground, Build a Literate Classroom, and A Fresh Look at Writing: Professionals Guide.

Prepared by: Lisa Sheldon, Operations Specialist, Literacy Department