

EXPLANATION OF FOURTH AMENDMENT TO AGREEMENT
BETWEEN THE
SAN DIEGO UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT
AND THE
CITY OF SAN DIEGO

August 9, 2005

PARTIES TO THE AGREEMENT: San Diego Unified School District and the City of San Diego

AGREEMENT SUMMARY: Agreement between the San Diego Unified School District and the City of San Diego to provide San Diego's "6-to-6" Extended School Day Programs during the 2004-2005 school year. This Fourth Amendment to the Agreement increases 21st Century Community Learning Centers (21st CCLC) grant funding to the City for allowable one-time expenses (e.g. trainings and acquisition of standards-aligned materials) that are directly related to the 21st CCLC program, to operate a Summer School program, and to increase core grant caps for those programs that are at or above the maximum amount, through August 31, 2005.

TERM: September 1, 2004 through August 31, 2005

AMOUNT OF FUNDING: $95,151 from the District to the City (21st CCLC grant funds)

SOURCES OF FUNDING: 21st CCLC grant funds received from the San Diego County Superintendent of Schools/County Office of Education specifically for this purpose.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION: San Diego's "6-to-6" Extended School Day Programs began in 1998 in partnership with the San Diego Unified School District, the San Diego County Office of Education, the City of San Diego, and nonprofit community-based organizations to offer students a safe environment before and after school. This Fourth Amendment to the 2004-2005 Agreement with the City of San Diego increases 21st Century Community Learning Center (CCLC) grant funding to the City for allowable one-time expenses (e.g., trainings and acquisition of standards-aligned materials) that are directly related to the 21st CCLC program, to operate a Summer School program, and to increase core grant caps for those programs that are at or above the maximum amount, through August 31, 2005.
