Description

Joy Bright Hancock Elementary is located in the Murphy Canyon military housing complex of Tierrasanta. Our diverse students come from across the United States, and from foreign countries. Hancock students are tolerant and accepting, friendly and resilient.

We expect our students to be responsible learners who use strategies for learning and problem solving. Our well qualified, dedicated teachers work hard to support students to develop their knowledge across content areas. Our staff, parents and community provide a positive and challenging learning environment where all children will be successful.

Our outstanding GATE program features highly motivated teachers trained to differentiate curriculum to meet the particular instructional needs of gifted and talented students. Students receive physical education, dance, and music in K-5 and instrumental, choir or band in grades 4 and 5.

We offer unique programs and strong partnerships. Each student receives swimming, gymnastics and fitness instruction during school hours at the Toby Wells YMCA. North Island Naval Air Station engineers teach after school applied science lessons and experiments for grade 5. Homework support and interpersonal skill development is provided by the Armed Forces YMCA Operation Hero program. Mental health services, counseling and therapy are available to eligible students. Licensed therapists provide services on our site.

We have been the recipients of the following awards, Equity Achievement Award, Urban League Best Practices Award, and Title 1 Academic Achievement Award in both, 2006 and 2008.
