Description

The School of Multimedia and Visual Arts (MVAS) is centrally located in City Heights on the Crawford Educational Complex campus. The high school complex, built in 1957, was converted in 2004 into four autonomous, career theme high schools.

Our diverse population brings a rich cultural perspective to learning, teaching and community building. We have students from Somalia and other African nations, and are experiencing a new group of immigrants from Burma. Almost half are of Latino/Mexican origin, over one-third speak English as a second language

We offer a college preparatory curriculum with an embedded multimedia and visual arts theme. All seniors are required to participate in internships as part of the graduation requirement. A large variety of elective courses include visual arts, AP arts and digital arts. MVAS Night showcases and celebrates student work twice a year with student presentations to peers, family and community members. Our students regularly participate in the San Diego County Fair, consistently winning awards in the categories of the visual arts, video, web and graphic design.

Community and parental involvement continues to be an area of growth. Parents are involved in SSC and attend events such as open house and student orientation. Our very active Business Advisory Board meets monthly. Board members support with curriculum, serve as panel members in senior exhibitions and student presentations. Our partners include Don Dean, Bank of America, NBC 7/39, Groovie Like a Movie, San Diego Imperial County Labor Council, Gavin and Gavin, and Top of the Line Printing and Graphics.
