

The Southern California Social Science Association and Arsalyn Program
in collaboration with the Los Angeles County Office of Education,
Constitutional Rights Foundation and the Center for Civic Education
are proud to present

Young Voters: Maintaining Momentum in Future Elections

Saturday, May 16, 2009
9:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m

Pickwick Gardens
1001 Riverside Drive
Burbank, CA 91506

This very special mini conference for elementary, middle school and high school teachers will offer materials and lessons for classroom use. This mini conference is free to teachers. A continental breakfast and a full lunch will be served. There will be three workshops for every grade level, and all materials are free. Civics, civic responsibility, service-learning, the history of voting rights, and mock elections are just a few of the topics covered.

To register, email Merrell Frankel at merrellfrankel@mac.com
Include grade level, school, and district

Registration is limited to the first 100 teachers who respond via email.
Confirmations will be emailed back with a map attached.
Please include the grade level taught or the subject taught. Groups will be broken down by elementary, middle school and secondary.