Community Advisory Committee for Special Education

Invites You to Attend

Parent Orientation to Special Education

For Parents / Caregivers of Students Recently Referred or Parents/ Caregivers New to the Individualized Education Program (IEP) Process

When a child is initially referred for special education, the process can be overwhelming. The purpose of this workshop is to:

- Assist parents / caregivers in navigating the special education system
- Provide an opportunity to answer your questions and guide you through the process
- Discover available support systems within the district
- Learn about community resources

We encourage you to attend this workshop to learn about the special education process, how you can be involved and meet other parents / caregivers.
