

"You may never know what results come of your action, but if you do nothing there will be no result." ~Mahatma Gandhi

The massive state-mandated budget cuts to our local schools are coming this September and will impact every aspect of how we presently teach our kids. Our community must come together to discuss exactly how these cuts are going to affect our schools, and what we must do to ensure our students receive the best education possible.

On Saturday, June 13 from 2-5 p.m. at San Diego City College, San Diego School Board Vice-President, Richard Barrera, is inviting parents, teachers, students, principals, elected officials, and business, faith and other community leaders to participate in candid breakout discussions regarding what we have to do to minimize the blow to our classrooms caused by state-mandated classroom budget cuts. Working together, we can be that change.
