Social and Emotional Development State GATE Standard: Districts establish and implement plans to support the social and emotional development of gifted learners to increase responsibility, self-awareness, and other issues of affective development. (EC 52212a1)

How do the teachers at your site balance cognitive learning and affective learning for their GATE students?

GATE teachers collaborate with our counselor and parents to make sure the social-emotional needs are being met. Our physical education, band/orchestra program and choral programs provide additional opportunities for GATE students to meet their social and emotional needs.

What support does your site provide for GATE students who are underachieving, learning the English language, at-risk, and/or double-labeled?

We provide tutoring after school for underperforming kids, increased small group and one-on-one in class time, and regular communication with the home.

Parent and Community Involvement State GATE Standard: Districts provide procedures to ensure consistent participation of parents and community members in the planning and evaluation of programs for gifted students. (EC 52202 2f)

How does your site involve your DAC representative and/or your GATE steering committee in planning and reviewing your site's GATE program?

We are currently without a DAC. When formed, we will have the DAC representative meet with the GATE coordinator to give input on the GATE plan.

Program Assessment State GATE Standard: Districts establish formal and informal evaluation methods and instruments that assess the gifted program and the performance of gifted students (which meets or exceeds state content standards). Results of data collected, including state standardized tests, are used to study the value and impact of the services provided and to improve gifted programs and gifted students' performance. (EC 52212a1)

How does your site plan to assess the effectiveness of your GATE program during 2007-08?

Disaggregate students scores on STAR as well as other district provided tests (Benchmarks, DRA)

Budget State GATE Standard: District budgets for gifted programs support and provide for all the components of the district's GATE program and meet the related standards. (EC 52209, 52212a1,2,3)
