Seminar Task Force Review
2006-2007
Second Meeting Agenda
November 14, 2006 4:00-6:00 p.m.
Madison H.S. Cafeteria

“We have a sound enough base for gifted education that we can—no, we must—attend to another dimension of giftedness: the development of caring, concerned, compassionate committed individuals who develop and use their giftedness for society’s benefit as well as for self-fulfillment.” --A. Harry Passow

Please sign in.

PURPOSE: To work in sub-committee groups as a means to analyze and formulate recommendations for improvement for the following four components of the SDUSD Seminar program: Instruction, Parent and Student Support; Program Application Process and Guidelines for Initiating a new site- or district-funded Seminar program.

4:00-4:15p.m. Welcome and outline of our work today. Adalia Lavado
GATE Program Manager

4:15-5:45 p.m. Task Force members will break out into the sub-committee groups. Please see the reverse side of this agenda for room assignments. Each subcommittee will be facilitated by a GATE Dept. staff member. Please use this time to discuss the purpose of the subcommittee, the tasks listed on the task sheets. If additional meeting times are necessary, please agree on meeting dates and location, and discuss agendas for (to be held outside of the Task Force Meetings.)

5:45-6:00 p.m. Reconvene in the Madison cafeteria. Next Steps.

Next Meeting: January 9, 2006 4:00-6:00 p.m. Madison H.S Cafeteria. Topic: CPU Allocation Requests (to be discussed in H.S. Feeder Pattern Groups)
