MEDIA ADVISORY

November 18, 2003

Two schools will cut the ribbon on new buildings

*Sessions Elementary will open new library;
Grant Elementary will open two-story classroom building*

Two elementary schools will officially open and dedicate a brand-new library and a classroom building, thanks to Proposition MM, the $1.51 billion bond measure passed by San Diego voters in 1998. Proposition MM is funding modernization at 165 existing schools and construction of 16 new/rebuilt schools throughout the district.

What: Ribbon-Cutting For New Library Building at Sessions Elementary

When: Wednesday, November 19, 11:15 a.m.

Where: 2150 Beryl Street, Pacific Beach (Thom Bros 1248-B4)

What: Ribbon-Cutting for New Two-Story Classroom Building at Grant Elementary

When: Thursday, November 20, 10:30 a.m.

Where: 1425 Washington Place, Hillcrest (Thom Bros 1268-J6)

Program:

- Student performances, singing, readings
- Ribbon-cutting
- Student-led tours of new facilities
- In attendance: students, parents, district staff, Board Members, community leaders

Background: Both schools have received brand-new facilities at their campuses, thanks to Proposition MM. Sessions' new library will house book collections, computers and space for reading.

Grant's new classroom has relieved classroom crowding and made possible the removal of several temporary bungalows, which has opened up playground space.
