

Bring Your Students to MINGEI INTERNATIONAL
MUSEUM in Balboa Park and see their innate creativity come alive!

FREE ADMISSION & TRANSPORTATION FOR STUDENTS

Mingei International Museum, our region's only museum dedicated to folk art, craft and design from all eras and cultures of the world, invites you to bring your students to visit the Museum for docent-led tours that are fun learning experiences and standards-based to support classroom curriculum. Thanks to generous support from QUALCOMM Incorporated and The McGraw-Hill Companies, ADMISSION AND TRANSPORTATION ARE FREE for students from Title 1 schools in San Diego. And there is more. Our corporate sponsors are also funding a FREE FAMILY PASS so the students and teachers can return with their families to share their experience.

Current exhibitions that will engage your students include:

- SYMBOLS OF IDENTITY—Jewelry of Five Continents to March 2007
- OF GOLD AND GRASS—Nomads of Kazakhstan to April 15, 2007
- JOHN DIRKS SCULPTOR—A Retrospective to February 11, 2007
- EVA ZEISEL—Extraordinary Designer Craftsman at 100 December 2006 to June 10, 2007

For additional information and to schedule visits for your students, please contact us via e-mail at education@mingei.org, phone at 619-239-0003 ext. 107 or fax at 619-239-0605. If you need assistance with funds for transportation, please include that request when you make a reservation.
