

San Diego State University Policy Studies MA Program Informational Meeting
Wednesday, May 7, 4-5 p.m.
Classes begin Fall 2008 at San Diego State University

The Policy Studies Department from SDSU offers a Masters of Arts degree in Education program designed to assist educators in learning how to address the needs of our linguistically and diverse schools through the ongoing development of school curriculum and programs.

A few of our MA program strengths are the following:

- High caliber faculty capable of addressing needs of students in urban settings particularly English Language Learners!
- Develop skills for implementing innovative and critical curriculum for English learners and urban youth.
- Obtain a Bilingual Specialist Credential or English for Academic Literacy Certificate or Dual language Certificate as part of your MA Degree
- Gain tools and skills in providing Professional Development

MEETING WILL BE HELD IN ROOM 261 @ The Memorial Academy Campus
850 Logan Avenue San Diego,

We look forward to working with you! Please do not hesitate to call our department (619) 594-5155 or email gonzaleg07@yahoo.com for more information. Also visit our website at:
