CERTIFICATED AND CLASSIFIED COURSE OFFERINGS

JANUARY 2009

Jan. 24-31, Sa. 4.11a Re-directing for a Cooperative Classroom™ (1 cr.)
8 a.m.-3:30 p.m. – Horton Elementary, Room 3, 5050 Guymon St., San Diego, 92102

Re-directing for a Cooperative Classroom™ empowers teachers to create a classroom atmosphere that promotes high self-esteem and cooperation among students, parents, administrators and teachers. Activities include role plays, dramatizations and stories that help teachers to internalize the learning.

The text to be used at the class, "Discipline Without Tears" by Rudolf Dreikurs may be found in the library or purchased ahead of time from local bookstores. The workbook on Re-directing for a Cooperative Classroom™ may be purchased from the instructor at the time of the class for $15 each.

For more information about the course visit their web site at: <http://www.incaf.com/courses.php?actionReq=rcc>.

Jan. 31-Feb. 19, Sa.-Th. 12.14 GATE - Differentiating Instruction Utilizing Multiple
Intelligences/Learning Styles and Preferences (.5 cr.)
8 a.m.-12 p.m., Sa. /4 p.m.-6 p.m., Th. - Madison High School, Room 25, 4833 Doliva Drive, San Diego 92117

This course is designed for Primary grade teachers who want to be better teachers of young children by establishing a plan for providing identification and evaluation of young gifted children. You will learn mechanisms for differentiating instruction, including alternate options for students with unique needs. Teachers will begin with the differences of the child, adjust the lessons and curriculum accordingly. This course is open to all primary teachers who want to do a better job of teaching in order to influence all the years that follow and who have an adamant interest in developing potentially gifted students at an early age.
