

" IT'S TRULY AMAZING TO SEE HOW TALENTED AND INNOCENT THESE YOUNG KIDS ARE. THEY REALLY ARE THE LITTLE GOODWILL AMBASSADORS COMING TO SAN DIEGO WITH BLESSING" – AN AUDIENCE FROM 2008

Come experience a dazzling performance of singing, dancing and Beijing Opera presented by the young and talented acrobats from Yancheng, China. Yancheng is historically known as one of the "three and a half cradles of national acrobatics" with performers selected and trained from a very young age, only to produce some of the world's finest acrobatic performers. Yancheng is one of the San Diego Friendship cities and the acrobats come to San Diego to celebrate the 2009 Asian Heritage Month. Come join us for this wonderful and truly unique cultural experience!

About the Program

The program includes: two chorus performances, Beijing Opera performance, saxophone solo, singing, ballroom dancing, violin solo, etc.

Monday, May 4, 2009 at 9:00 a.m.

2930 Barnard St, 92110 (619) 224-3306

This event is co-sponsored by
Confucius Institute at SDSU
圣地亚哥州立大学孔子学院
CONFUCIUS.SDSU.EDU